

Family Recovery

Malachi 4:6 "And he will turn the heart of the Fathers to the children, And the hearts of the Children to their fathers." NKJV

Relationships can make or break a person in Recovery. That is why Waypoint Center provides one more component to its program: Family Recovery. As families undergo this intense training, they begin to unfold the underlying causes of addiction and break the cycle for generations to come.

Family Recovery is a vital part of our ministry. The families of the men in the program are encouraged to participate in discussion groups and Biblical counseling sessions every weekend where each family member receives guidance and spiritual instruction in the rebuilding of family life.

Addiction is a disease that has many casualties. It spreads and harms many of those in our lives. This makes healing and forgiveness with loved ones imperative. Waypoint provides a place to manifest healing and move forward in the rebuilding of family relationships.

Each family member must attend Family Recovery meetings in order to be allowed visitation. There is a thirty-day detachment period during which no visitation is permitted. During the 30 days, family members are highly encouraged to attend Family Recovery Classes but may not visit until approved by the Program Director.

Please call our office for more information on attending our Family Recovery Classes.
